He submits that, the appellant and his wife recorded statements under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. which makes out a case of penetrative sexual assault on the victim and outraging her modesty as also user of video photography of a penetrative sexual assault in order to blackmail her. He submits that, the police did not investigate in those lines.

7. Learned advocate appearing for the State submits that, the police conducted an investigation under Section 306 of the IPC, 1860. Investigations with regard to such police case did not yield any fruitful result in order to put up any person for trial. Consequently, police submitted a report before the Jurisdictional Court.
8. We perused the case diary which learned advocate for the State reproduced in Court.

9. There is a statement under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. by the wife of the appellant before us, in the case diary. Such statement alleges that the victim was subjected to sexual assault and video photography of such incident was recorded by persons named therein. Such video was used to blackmail the victim.

11. In such circumstances, police will investigate the case. Police will add relevant provisions of the BNS on the basis of the statement recorded under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. of the appellant and his wife as also the other materials in the case diary.
12. 13. No doubt, the Investigating Authority will take into consideration the submissions made on behalf of the appellant today in their further investigations.
14. The writ petition is yet to be disposed of. We, therefore, do not make any comment in the substitution of the Investigating Officer or the Investigating Agency at this stage. Such point is kept open.
15. We, therefore, request the learned Single Judge to hear the writ petition on the date fixed, subject to the business of the Court.
16. No fruitful purpose will be sub-served by keeping the appeal pending.
