

IN THE HIGH COURT OF MADHYA PRADESH
AT INDORE
FA No. 681 of 2025

Dated : 17-09-2025

Shri Sukh Lal Gwaliory - Advocate for the appellant.

Shri Himanshu Nagda - Advocate for the respondent.

It is very unfortunate and painful for us that a daughter is struggling to get maintenance from her father. As many as four petitions have been filed by the appellant-father before this Court against the respondent-daughter who is pursuing her Graduation in Mumbai.

The contention of the counsel for the appellant is that the respondent is being taken care of by her maternal grandfather. The maternal grandfather of the respondent must be an aged person, therefore, it cannot be expected from him to maintain the respondent in future.

The respondent who is present in person submits that she has reasons to believe that appellant has performed the second marriage and has a son. It is not expected from the respondent to conduct an investigation and find out the income of the appellant and his marital status.

Shri Gwaliory, learned counsel appearing for the appellant is specifically denying the allegations of second marriage and son. He further submits that appellant has no income to give the amount of Rs. 10,000/- per month to the respondent.

Appellant is residing at Indore (MP). The appellant in this appeal as well as the petitions (M.P.No. 1325/2025, MP No. 2547/2024 and MP No. 2676/2024) has come up with a plea that he is an unemployed person having no source of income, therefore he is unable to pay the maintenance to the respondent. If these contentions are found to be false, then the same would amount to misguiding the Court.

Therefore, we have no option but to direct the concerned Sub Divisional Officer (Revenue), Indore and the SHO, Police Station Tilak Nagar, Indore to visit the house of the appellant and submit a report about the number of family members, list of property and income of the appellant. Let the report be submitted within a week.

Shri Sudeep Bhargava, Dy. Advocate General is directed to communicate this order to the concerned officials and obtain the report.

List along with M.P.Nos.1325/2025, 2547/2024 and 2676/2024 on 06.10.2025.
